

Mr. Joseph Abbit

May 10, 1960 - March 12, 2015

Joseph Lamont Abbitt was born May 10, 1960. Though his time here was short he was loved by all. He was born in Winston-Salem, NC to a loving mother Lina Mae Abbitt and Father Joseph Brown. Joseph has moved on to a much better place; where the skys are blue and the grass is much greener. Joseph passed on March 12, 2015 . He will be truly missed, but never forgotten. He was 6 feet tall and with a heart made of gold and if you knew him was to love him as he touched you in a very special way. No matter what challenges he faced he always found the concern of others to stand first, he always continued to grow but stayed strong. Joseph's love for God and his grand heart that reached all that knew him. Joseph is now on a greater mission. His mission for life is our mission for life. Joseph death will not be in vain, but celebrated. God is the head of our life and Joseph loved his life. This is his story and he will be missed but his faith lives on as he has moved on into Gods open arms. His journey has not ended and his soul belongs to God. We look up to the sky and see his big brown eyes watching over us saying " I LOVE YOU ALL!" Joseph's legacy will live on forever in his family. He leaves to cherish his loving memories his brothers Haywood M. Montgomery, Thurmond W. Abbitt, James E. Abbitt, Hansford Brown and Joseph Jr. Brown, sisters Doris J. Abbitt-Thompson, Armentrice M. Abbitt; Wanda Brown, Beverly Brown, Stephanie Brown, Shirley Eldridge, other loving family Elaine Montgomery, Michelle Montgomery, Michael Montgomery, Tomeke Montgomery, Shalonda Montgomery, Delosie Abbitt, Sindy Abbitt, Justin Abbitt and Travis Abbitt, Ashley Abbitt, Lamont Abbitt, Rochelle Thompson, Princess Thompson, Dezmonda Abbitt, Joeseph(Jerrene) Abbitt, Armentic Abbitt and Terrel Abbitt, special family and friends Roger and Olivia Allen, Haywood and Lorette Allen. A host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives and friends.

“ To the family and friends of Mr. Joseph Abbitt:
I am so sorry to hear about the death of your loved one. I, too, suffered a great loss last year, so I know how it feels. I hope you can find solace at the very distressing time. Something that helped me was reliance on God. I'm sure if you lean on him, he won't let you down. Pray to him incessantly, for the strength to make it through. Psalm 34:18 tells us, "Jehovah is close to the broken hearted; And he saves those crushed in spirit." No matter how far off, God may seem, he is still close to you through your tough times. Death of a friend or family member is inevitably hard to deal with, but with God by your side, it's a little easier. My deepest sympathy goes out to all of you. With much love, Carmen Sheffield.
