“ I just wanted to send my deepest condolences to the dear family of Gracie. I am terribly sorry to hear of her untimely passing. I know that dealing with the death of a loved one is literally one of the hardest things a person can go through in life, especially when you feel they didn't get to live as long as they should have. What helped me when dealing with the death of my loved one was that of relying on the God of all comfort. I'm sure it can help you all to get through this difficult time as well. God never wants to see us suffer. 1 Peter 5:7 states, "Throw ALL your anxiety on him, because he cares for you." Please allow God to bear ALL of your pain and heartache. That is the best thing you can do for yourself right now. My thoughts and prayers are with you all. With much love, Carmen Sheffield.
