“ I had the honor of working with Brian for nearly ten years at Garner Foods. In that time, he became far more than a coworker — he became my brother.

Brian had a gift for lifting people up. He made hard days easier, brought laughter when it was needed most, and made everyone around him feel valued. But as much as he gave to us at work, it was clear where his heart truly lived — with his family. He spoke about his kids and grandkids with a pride and love that never dimmed.

Even after I moved away, Brian and I stayed in touch almost every day. Distance never weakened the bond we built. And in every conversation, his family was right there with him.

Brian made a difference. His kindness, humor, and loyalty left a mark on everyone who knew him. Those things don't fade — they live on in our stories, in the lessons he shared, and most of all, in the family he loved so deeply.

Thank you for sharing him with us. His memory will continue to shine through all of us who were blessed to call him a friend.
