

Catherine Leak Roseboro

May 9, 1931 - December 18, 2025

With reverence and holy confidence in the promises of God, we announce the blessed homegoing of our beloved Mother Catherine Leak Roseboro, who was called from labor to reward on December 18, 2025.

Mother Roseboro was born to the late Elijah and Erow Tuttle Leak. At an early age, she accepted Jesus Christ as her personal savior, was filled with the Holy Ghost, and united with Gates of Zion Glorious Church of God, where she remained a faithful, sanctified, and committed member for many years.

As a Mother of the Church, Mother Roseboro was a true woman of God, devoted to prayer, fasting, holiness, and the teaching of righteousness. Her words were seasoned with wisdom, her walk matched her talk, and her love for the church was unwavering. She stood firm in doctrine and lived what she believed.

She was educated and worked faithfully as a custodian at North Davidson

Senior High School until retirement. Above all, her greatest ministry was her life-lived holy before God and man.

She was preceded in death by her husband, William “Bill” Roseboro; parents, Elijah and Erow Leak; and siblings, Elizabeth Roberts, Nathaniel Leak, and Maurice Turner.

She leaves to cherish her blessed memory: Edward (Helen) Roseboro of High Point, North Carolina, Joyce Roseboro of the home, Darlene Roseboro of Midway, North Carolina, Stephen Roseboro of the home, and Larry Roseboro of Winston Salme, North Carolina; grandchildren and great-grandchildren; siblings, Ula Woods of Midway, North Carolina, John Leak of Dayton, Ohio, and Betty Leak of Midway, North Carolina; beloved church family; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, spiritual sons and daughters, 11 grandchildren, 17 great grandchildren, and dear friend, Ruth Thompson.

Though we sorrow, we do not grieve as those without hope, for we know she has laid down her cross and received her crown.

“Precious in the sight of the Lord is the death of His saints.”

Psalm 116:15

To my dear Aunt Catherine, to be absent from the body is to be present with the Lord! The best place you can be, with mother Erow and my mother Maurice. James
