

Christine Melton Sing Talbert

September 18, 1939 - May 22, 2025

With deep love and cherished memories, we celebrate the life and legacy of Christine Melton Sings Talbert, who departed this life peacefully at her home on May 22, 2025. She was 85 years old.

Christine was born on September 18, 1939, in Lexington, North Carolina, to the late Robert Lee Melton Sr. and Lalar Lindsay Melton. A proud native of the Midway community, Christine carried the strength and grace of her upbringing throughout her life, even as she traveled and lived in Ohio, Michigan, and New York before returning home to North Carolina. She was educated at Dunbar High School and later dedicated many years of service to Mallory Battery, which later became known as Duracell. Christine's work ethic and spirit were unmatched, earning the respect and admiration of colleagues and friends alike.

From an early age, Christine found joy and purpose in singing. Her gift blossomed within the church and led her to become a member of the gospel group Billy Paul and the Angelic Nightingales, where her voice touched the hearts of many. Her faith and music remained central to her life.

Christine was preceded in death by two loving husbands, Ned D. Sings and Don Reid Talbert; her parents, Robert Melton Sr. and Lalar Melton; her brothers, Melvin Page Sr., Richard Tuttle, and Bishop Robert Melton Jr.; and her sisters, Betty Mae Tuttle and Juanita Wagner.

She leaves behind a legacy of love, strength, and faith through her children: Valerie Knight, Cassietta (Kendrick) Williams, Broderick (Lenore) Sings, and Terkisha Sings; her sister Corine (Forcie) DeLapp; her grandchildren: D'Andra Johnson, Kendall Williams, Darius Lindsay, Alayasia Covington, Kennedy Sings, Solomon Sings, Cortlyn Sings, and Monique Russell; and eight beloved great-grandchildren. She is also survived by her godchildren: Mary Johnson, Angela Tuttle, and Michael Moore, along with a host of nieces, nephews, extended family, friends, and all who were touched by her warmth and kindness.

Christine's life was a testament to faith, love, and resilience. Her legacy will continue in the hearts and lives of all who knew and loved her. "Her voice may be silent, but her song lives on."
