

Darline Hawkins

November 7, 2024

I can do all things through Christ who strengthens me.

Darline Hall Hawkins, 79, daughter of Jonah Hall and Carrie Mae Hall, was born on July 17, 1945, in Butler, Georgia. She transitioned peacefully on November 7, 2024.

Darline was preceded in death by her parents, two brothers, and two sisters.

Darline graduated from Atkins High School. She married Cornelius Jack Hawkins, Jr. This union blessed them with two sons, eight grandchildren, eleven great-grandchildren, and two great-great-grandchildren.

Darline had a fun and loving spirit. She loved to shop, decorate, and cook for her family and most of all treasured the time spent with her grandchildren. She will always be remembered for her unconditional love, dedication, wisdom, and support. To know her was to appreciate her while in the presence of a woman of style and grace.

She leaves to cherish her memories: her husband of 60 years, Cornelius Jack Hawkins, Jr.; loving sons, Cornelius Jack Hawkins, III (Stephanie) and Lamonte Hawkins (Michelle); four granddaughters, Tinesha Couthen, Danielle Audit (Sanjeev), Lateshia Rich (Jakorian), and Jasmine Ward (Shelton); four grandsons, Nathan Hawkins, Lamonte Hawkins, Jr., Devin

Hawkins, and Gerrad Hawkins; five great-granddaughters, Alexis Couthen, Sariah Ward, Sayla Ward, Asia Hawkins, and Jordan Rich; six great-grandsons, Kewain Couthen, Isiah Hawkins, Joseph Couthen, Kiaza Ward, Logan Rogers, and Roman Audit; two great-great-grandsons, Jasier Couthen and Jahki Couthen; three sisters, Wilma Coleman, Margaret Hall and Eldora Parker; two brothers, Milton Hall and Wilbur Hall; and a host of nieces, nephews, other family members, and friends.

“ Mom, you will truly be missed, you have always been there for me and Lamonte. You taught us to be brave, to be kind, and to always stand up for what is right. Your legacy is one of love and compassion, and we strive to honor it every day. Though our hearts ache with the pain of your absence, we find comfort in knowing that you are at peace, watching over us from above. Thank you, Mom, for everything. For your love, your guidance, and your endless support. You will always be our hero, and we will forever be your loving sons. Jack and Lamonte

Auntie Darlene my heart 💖 is so very heavy knowing that you are no longer with us in the flesh but, you will always be in spirit. Growing up whenever I visited grandma Carrie and Grandpa Jona you always looked after me. I patterned after you like delegating authority, and cleaning. You always made sure the house was spotless and if I saw a speck of dust on the baseboard I'd think of you and get to cleaning. Whether I saw you in a month or popped in on you after a year you'd always welcome me with that beautiful smile and make me laugh because you and my dad sounded so much alike when you laughed and spoke. You'd always keep me informed on how the rest of the family was doing. I was hoping to meet Jack and Lamont and for you to meet Torri and for her to meet her cousins this Thanksgiving. I'm sorry that it didn't happen. I probably shouldn't say this but, you have always been my favorite auntie. Now you are resting in the bosom of our Lord and savior, so rest peacefully my love until I see you again.

“ Darlene was a “Very Special” co-worker. We worked together in two departments, the second department Darlene insisted that I placed an application. We both shared some disappointments in this job, but God sustained us until we were dismissed or retired! I only saw her a few times after. Thanks Darlene for sharing your love and kindness with me as we worked together. You will always be warm in my heart. RIP until we meet again. †

“ I'm truly at a loss for words right now, my heart heavy with sorrow. 💔 Darline, my love for you will last an eternity. This moment feels surreal and unimaginable, yet you will always hold a special place in my heart as my beloved granny. ❤️ The moments we shared were filled with joy and laughter; there was never a dull second in your presence. As you rest now, I hope you feel the peace you deserve, beautiful. Thank you for imparting wisdom and love—everything I ever needed to know. Spread your wings and fly high; my love for you is immeasurable. 💔💔💔💔💔💔💔💔

Words cannot express the pain I feel from losing you. You inspired me in countless ways, and I am eternally grateful for your love, support, compassion, and dedication to our family. Your smile was infectious, and your sense of humor always kept me laughing. Your kindness and strength shaped my life. You were an amazing grandmother to my children and me. I will always cherish the memories we created together. You will continue to live in our hearts and spirits.

I love you, baby!
