“Dad, I miss you and the way you were before you became ill. You were the best dressed man that I have ever seen in my life and I will forever carry that in my spirit now that you are gone. I miss our times that we spent meeting downtown at the Pepper Building and the Woolworth when it was still open and the times we spent shopping to ensure that I was as well dressed as you were. Thank you for becoming a better man and a great father and grandfather. You always greeted me with a kiss and we departed with a kiss. And always had goodies for my children. And now I will pass that tradition on. I pray that you continue to watch over us with love and grace.

I love you and I hope you are dancing in the heavens like you used to dance at Alive After Five!!! And I promise you my next project I have: I DEDICATE IT ALL TO YOU, DAD.
Until then I dedicate this song to you-

“You are the sun
You are the rain....
That makes my life this foolish game
You need to know
I love you so...
And I'd do it all again and again”- Lionel Ritchie

And I love you this lifetime and will love and see you in the next. -
