“ Dwayne was a good friend to me for many years. He was honest, kind-hearted, and funny. I will think of him often, and remember him always. His struggles in this life were more visible than for others of us, but he testified of his faith in the Lord, and my hope is that he will be resurrected unto life at the His return, and welcomed into eternal comfort and joy in Christ's kingdom.

My heart was very heavy when I received the news of Dwayne passing, all of the childhood memories of us growing up as first cousin's and All of the large family Love that surround us, he would always hug me whenever our paths crossed as we got older with hi cuz, his handsome smile, always respectful , I never heard him say a harsh word to anyone, he will be Greatly missed, May You forever R.I.P. Dwayne, You may no longer be here in Spirit but You shall always be here in Our Heart's .

Growing up, Dwayne was my “partner in crime.” We did everything together and really enjoyed each other's company. When we finally grew up and started this adulthood thing, life sent us on different paths and we didn't see each other for years at a time. But when we did, it was as though nothing had changed. He just was always smarter than he let on and his sense of humor was unequalled. Praying we cross paths again in the hereafter.
