

Elder Jossie Bell James

March 23, 1933 - December 31, 2022

Elder Jossie Bell James, also affectionately known as GG was called to her heavenly resting place on Saturday, December 31, 2022. Born March 23, 1933, to the late James and Rebecca Morris, Sr in Nesmith South Carolina. She was a loving sister to 3 brothers, James Morris Jr.(deceased), Charles Morris (deceased), and Willard Morris (deceased), 6 sisters, Catherine Miller (deceased), Mary Cooper, Christer Bell Murphy, Lutie Floyd, Delores McGill (James), and Bertha Morris (deceased).

She is proceeded in death by her husband William James Sr. She is survived by her 5 children, Leroy Morris, Cellestine Evans (John), William James Jr., Shelia James, and Loretta James. She leaves to cherish her memory with 9 grandchildren, 15 great-grandchildren (including spouses), 4 great-great-grandchildren, and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.

Elder Jossie James was a true soldier in God's Army. She attended Saints Delight TVPH Church of God Inc. (Reverend Joseph K. McQueen/Bishop John W. Hopper Sr., pastors), where she served as District Mother and was ordained an Elder. Saints Delight became Shamah Tabernacle Pentecostal Holiness Church of God, Inc. (Bishop John W. Hopper Sr. pastor) and most recently New Hope Missionary Baptist Church (Bishop John C. Parks pastor). Her life was a true testament of what it means to live for Christ. She was undoubtably the image of love and servitude. Elder Jossie James was a pillar in the community, servant in the church, caretaker of many children, and the glue to her family. To know her was to love her. Elder James always said,

“Keep your hand in the Master’s hand and don’t take it out” and she did just that until God called her home. She will truly be missed but her spirit will live on through the host of people whose lives she has touched.

“ Thank you, GG for being a consistent Proverbs 31 Woman and Prayer Warrior! May the comfort of the Holy Ghost saturate your family, church family, and all those who celebrate your life. Your wisdom, compassion, and love will be missed immensely! Be encouraged, Matthew 5:4 - "Some trust in horses and others chariots", but GG always trusted in the LORD, all her life! Amen.
