

Ms. Ethel Hall Jackson Williams

February 25, 1936 - September 22, 2017

“Death is a gateway that we all must pass through to reach that fair land where our soul is born anew.”

Ethel Hall Jackson Williams affectionately loved by family and friends passed away quietly Friday evening, September 22, 2017 after an extended illness. She was born on February 25, 1936 in Mount Airy, Florida to the late Ether Lee Conrad. Ms. Conrad moved her family to North Carolina where Ethel was educated in the Winston Salem school system. Ethel relocated to New York City for several years and later returned to Winston Salem, the town that she considered her home.

Ethel spent the last 3 decades working in the nursing home business for her long time and dear friend Mrs. Ruby Norwood. Ethel’s kindness and caring touched the lives of many of the people she came in contact with during the time that she spent working at the nursing home. She was an outstanding cook and care taker. Ethel prepared many great meals throughout the years and it has been said that she could “fry a whole chicken with just a table spoon of cooking oil!”

Ms. Ethel was preceded in death by her mother Ether Lee Conrad, sister Sallie Crooks, daughter Rosland Brown-Bey and sons Richard Darryl Jackson and Charles Frederick Williams Jr. She leaves six children to mourn her passing; Andrea Royster of Baltimore, Maryland, Aquilla Jackson of Winston Salem North Carolina, Delphine Williams of New York City, Anthony Williams (JoAnne) of Huntingtown, Maryland, Deborah Williams of New York City and Michael Williams of New York City. She also leaves a host of grandchildren, great grandchildren other friends and relatives including a special friend and coworker Ms. Jean Gause and her extended family in New York City and Philadelphia, Pa.
