Obituary

Eva Mae Goodine

Minister Eva Mae Goodine, age 89, went home to be with the Lord late Monday evening, November 14, 2016, at Kate B. Reynolds Hospice & Palliative Care Center. She was born February 2, 1927, in Florence, SC, to the late Moses James and Julie Wild James. She spent most of her adult life in Winston-Salem and retired from Pell Care Nursing Home in Walkertown, NC.

Minister Goodine, affectionately known as Mother, was a faithful member of First Waughtown Baptist Church for many years, serving on the ministerial staff and with the Missionary Department. Mother Goodine was a dedicated intercessor and highly respected church mother. She was an outstanding pillar in both the church and community and coordinated a clothing ministry from her home, blessing the lives of many who were in need.

Mother Goodine was preceded in death by her husband, Monroe Goodine; a son, Sammie Lee James; a daughter, Mary Louise Goodine; and a brother, Moses James, Jr. She leaves to cherish her memory the following family members: one daughter, Linda Kay Goodine; two sons, Donald Ray Goodine and James Wilford Goodine (Shirley); three grandchildren, Rev. Pamela Arnita Goodine, James Denard Goodine, and James Wilford Goodine, Jr.; twelve great grandchildren; a special spiritual daughter, Eleanor Frazier; and a host of friends and church members.

“ Grandma was a Godly mother to so many. She was a true woman of God that often shared His word with them. She was a praying woman a loving woman and met no strangers. I thank God for who she was and her guidance in my life. I'm thankful to witness the prayers that she sent up on the behalf of myself are being answered. RRest in Peace Grandma. You are loved and never forgotten.

“ My mother raised my niece, Pamela Goodine and for some reason she wanted me to see that my niece is taken care of, my goal is to inspire and teach my niece how to accumulate prosperity and live a good Christian life. This initiative has been implemented. God is awesome. James W. Goodine Sr.
