“ Excuse me! Ms Scott heart was very huge when it came to anything or anybody. Robin

“ It really saddened my heart to hear about Ms. Evelina Scott. Ms. Scott is what I have always called her from the first time I met her back in the day when I dated her nephew Isaac Scott rest his soul. She was a joy then, and she was still a joy. We lost contact as the years went on. We reconnected after our churches (Union Chapel Baptist Church and New Zion Baptist Church) begin to fellowship together. When it was time for our churches to fellowship together. I'm not sure if I was looking forward to our churches fellowshiping together, or if I was looking forward to seeing Ms. Scott, and fellowshiping with her. She could have a two hour church service just in a ten minute conversation. After we shared the goodness of God, testimonies, miracles, blessings, prayers, and fellowship we had our church service. Ms. Scott heart was so hug when it came to anything or anybody. The last time our churches fellowshiped together at Union Chapel. After Ms. Scott and I talked. I requested a song I heard her sing the last time we fellowshiped at New Zion. Ms. Scott sung that for me. That meant so much to me, and truly blessed heart. It's going to be difficult for me as well as others fellowshiping together without her presence and praises. May God's love, peace, protection, joy, comfort, and blessings continue to surround your family and church family today and forever. Our thoughts and prayers are with you.

“ I will truly miss my sister in Christ and the many conversations we had. My heart is heavy BUT my spirit is rejoicing because she doesn't have to worry or cry anymore. I pray for God's peace and strength in the days to come for her family.

“ Evelina and I were classmates in school. She always wore a radiant smile . We reconnected later in life after my brother and his wife joined New Zion. She was Always ready to give her testimony of God's grace and mercy. I know she is praising God in her heavenly mansion 🙏🙏🙏🙏🙏🙏

“ i was saddened to hear of Evelina's transition, but I can almost picture her praising her way into the Kingdom. I pray that God's comfort, grace and peace covers you during this difficult time. I think back to the times of singing on the choir together and working in church with her. May God honor her faithfulness to the Kingdom.

Evelina was a beautiful, faithful, and virtuous woman of God. I remember the genuine love that she exhibited with her family, friends, and her church family. She truly loved New Zion Baptist Church, and she was extremely active in several ministries at church. She will be sorely missed. May our Heavenly Father always bless her family as they mourn her passing. Evelina is rejoicing in Heaven. To God be the Glory!
