

Frances Thomas

December 4, 1927 - April 6, 2015

Mrs. Frances Elizabeth Booker Thomas, 87, died Monday, April 6, 2015, at her home in the Midway Community. She was born in Winston-Salem on December 4, 1927, to Robert and Thelma Booker.

Mrs. Thomas attended the Winston-Salem Forsyth County Schools. As a young woman, she married Jessie Lee Thomas and moved to Midway. During her working years, she was employed by Heckman Industries and Cardinal's Drums and worked as a housekeeper in private homes. A lifelong member of First Waughtown Baptist Church, she had served on the Senior Usher Board and all culinary events.

Mrs. Thomas was predeceased by her parents; her husband; sisters, Louise Gwyn, Darnella Ray, Barbara Thompson and Alva Johnson; and brothers Robert Booker, Jr., Alvin Booker and Bernard Booker. She will be remembered lovingly by her children, Gwendolyn Bradshaw, her primary caregiver, Patricia Cotton, Sylvester Thomas, and Tawanna Thomas; nine grandchildren and three great grandchildren. She is also survived by sisters Levolia Washington, Betty Hopper, Linda Burgess (Roscoe), and Vanessa Keese (Allen); brother Lloyd Leslie Booker (Robin); godchildren, Wilma Broadie, Priscilla Rowdy and Stephon Roseboro; cousins, Janice Ross and Jeri Wagner; and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

Tribute Wall

VP

“ To Betty, and all of the Booker and Thomas family,
I send my sincere sympathy in the passing of Frances.
May God bless all of you with the peace that surpasses understanding as you go through this challenging time of saying goodbye here on earth.
The word says and therefore we know...
Joy will come in the morning,
Love, Maxine Mock Parks & family
