“ Frances was a very kind and dear sister in faith, a friend whom I easily grew to love and talk to. She was such a good listener and a caring, friend . My last vivid memory of actually seeing and talking to her was at the Memorial of Jesus Christs death some years ago, long before her health declined. She was sooo happy to have been in attendance. No other place did she want to be than celebrating the most important of occasions with her worldwide spiritual family. I miss her lovely smile and truly look forward to welcoming her back to life right here under the peaceful reign of Jesus Christ himself. This was most important to her. I look forward to be one of many who welcomes her beautiful smile back.
