

Geneva Lindsey Tuttle

January 29, 1955 - June 25, 2024

Ms. Geneva Lindsey Tuttle of Winston-Salem, NC departed her earthly life on June 25, 2024, at Atrium Health Wake Forest Baptist Medical Center. She was born January 29, 1955, to the late Clevester Tuttle and Louise Lindsey Tuttle of Winston-Salem in the Midway community. Geneva was preceded in death by her father, Clevester Tuttle, her son Kinyon Tuttle, and a sister, Doretha Tuttle. She leaves wonderful memories to be cherish by her mother, Louise Lindsey Tuttle of the home, her grandson Jair Tuttle, her sister Pansey Tuttle (Clifford), a brother Sylvester "Billy" Tuttle, her nephews Lagarius Tuttle, Jerrod Tuttle, Tyanna Tuttle all of Winston-Salem, Tywon Tuttle of Charlotte, NC and Dearius Leonard of High Point, NC, her aunts Edith Leak of Winston-Salem, Elsie McIntosh of Lexington, NC, Dora Hargrave of Midway, NC. In addition, Geneva leaves loving memories to her devoted friend and cousin Annetta McIntosh, friend Sadie Leonard, Pastor Keith Tuttle, Helen "Rabbit " Skeen, God-children Kasi Bowles and

Alaih Bowles of Winston-Salem, NC, Geneva graduated from North Davidson High School in 1973. Although retired, Geneva enjoyed working part-time with Winston-Salem Forsyth County Services. She made friends easily and was well known by many throughout the Winston-Salem and Lexington communities.
Geneva was a faithful daughter and a loving sister. She was a wonderful example of being a strong and righteous mother. Like many of her roles in life, Geneva took her role of motherhood seriously and ensured that her son matured to be a responsible and educated young man. She devoted her time and attention to spreading joy and love to those she knew.
She often made and delivered gift bags to cheer others.
She was a devoted member of Sweet Holy Spirit Family Worship Cathedral Center in Midway, NC. She served faithfully as the President of the Pastor Aide Committee. She enjoyed attending various church services and attending gospel singings. Most importantly, Geneva loved God. Precious are the memories and love that will linger in our hearts for Geneva as she knew how to love others.
