“ Greg was a practicing Attorney in Sanford, NC when I ,as a young inexperienced Lawyer, returned home to practice. Greg always treated me with respect and was a true professional. He was an easy going good guy and was well thought of in the Sanford community. He was missed when he moved to Winston Salem and I`m sure he will me missed by all there. My sincere condolences to Greg`s family. Chip Post Sanford NC

Greg and I were friends for many, many years. He is a couple of years older than me so he helped give me direction and advice when I was a young lawyer. Over the years we worked together on a number of projects through the Bar Association and also the community. I will sure miss Greg and his kindness. God's Peace to his whole family.

I am saddened to hear of the loss of my long time neighbor growing up in so close together. I also think of the W.B.Wicker band that we certainly enjoyed together. I will never forget your laughter. To the Davis family so sorry for your loss.
