“ jaden was like a brother to me,ive known him for 8 years,its just heart breaking to know that hes really gone,he was many things to me and plenty other people,we just wish it didnt happen so fast,he was only 15,he didn't deserve to be jumped or killed like he was,but his name will never die in my heart,hes in a better place

“ Jayden was a wonderful young man with a big wide smile and big dreamy eyes. He was quiet, loving and giving. He loved football and was destined for greatness. I thank God for placing him in my life. May his legacy live on in the hearts and memories of those he touched and those who loved him.
