My Heart is truly heavy and with much sadness, a family member, a younger brother has fallen too soon. It grieves me the distance between us, family we need to get better at this, Let Go of the things that truly holds us back from forgiveness because as we can see LIFE is not promised to us today, tomorrow, forever, My Condolences and Prayers goes out to all of my Family and I charge all of you to" Let Go" and Let GOD" use us to Restore and Renew Relationships.

“ With a deeply heavy heart, I send my love, support and condolences to all of you my extended family. We were all literally raised up together and James was a big brother to me. Words can't express the sense of loss I feel. Know that J is resting with God now. May God be your source of comfort, strength and peace in the days to come and throughout all your days. I love you and God keep you.
