

James Timothy Wilson Jr.

March 2, 2022

On March 8, 1966, James Timothy Wilson, Jr., was gifted to his parents, the late James Timothy Wilson, Sr., and the late Betty Jean Wilson. While we were blessed to have Timothy James Wilson for 55 years, his life was truly too short. He was loved and carried by his aunt, Brenda Polland, also known as “Peewee,” after the passing of his mother. In the late hours of March 2, 2022, God granted James Timothy Wilson, Jr., also known as “Junebug,” “Black Cat,” and “Gap Man,” gained his Heavenly wings.

Junebug was a very loving and caring person. Giving selflessly to his family, friends, and community.

He just enjoyed life. He worked at Mellow Mushroom for seven months.

Leaving to cherish in his memories: his daughter, Denise Young (Michael) of Winston-Salem, North Carolina; one brother, Timothy R. Aaron (Alethea) of Lexington, North Carolina; one sister, Dionne Glenn of Winston-Salem, North Carolina; a special friend, Lisa Scott of Winston-Salem, North Carolina; and a host of loving and supportive cousins and friends
