

Jamica D. Lyons

May 24, 1984 - May 20, 2020

Ms. Jamica D. Lyons, daughter of James Lyons, Sr. and Cheryl (JW) Holiday; was born in Winston-Salem, NC, on May 24, 1984. She completed her education in the Winston-Salem Forsyth County School System in 2003. She furthered her education at Forsyth Technical Community College, in the field of Business Management. She was a hard worker and dedicated to making a life for she and her sons. Professionally she was employed with the Brookdale Senior Living Facility. There Jamica was loved and admired by both her colleagues and residents.

Ms. Lyons was a member of The Greater Higher Ground Ministries in Winston-Salem, NC, where Bishop Janice O. Heath is the senior pastor. With great humility and honor, Jamica served as an intricate and vital member of the ministry.

Ms. Lyons loved her family, sons and her grandson. She was a loving mother and grandmother having much pride in the accomplishments of she and her children. Jamica's smile would illuminate a room and her laugh was infectious. She brought joy to the lives of everyone who had the pleasure to know her. She lived her life with dignity and self respect and was devoted to making the best of what she had, with God on her side.

The beautiful life of Jamica will forever be cherished in the hearts of her children: James Townsend Jr., Juwan Lyons, Justin Covington, Jace Covington (Octavius) and a God-daughter Kendra McClary all of Winston-Salem, NC; her parents, James Lyons, Sr. and Cheryl (JW) Holiday of Winston-Salem, NC; two brothers James Lyons Jr (Nicole), Maleak Anderson; five sisters Monica Barber (Derick) of Winston-Salem, NC, Turquoise Jackson, Jasmine Fulton (Jamond), Veronica Holiday, Levette Holiday, her grandson, James Richard Townsend III of Winston-Salem, NC; and a host of Uncles, Aunts other family and friends.
