Miss Me But Let Me Go

When I come to the end of the road, and the sun has set for me,

I want no rites in gloom-filled rooms,
Why cry for a soul set free?

Miss me a little--but not too long,
and not with your head bowed low;
remember the love that we once shared

Miss me--but let me go.

For this is a journey that we all must take,
and each must go alone.

It's all a part of the Master's plan, a step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick at heart,
Go to the friends we know,
and busy your sorrows in doing good deeds.
Miss me - but let me go
