

Joseph Abraham

June 25, 1962 - August 14, 2022

Joseph Nathan Abraham

Joseph “Joe” Nathan Abraham, 60, was born on June 25, 1962, in Florence SC, to Alice M. Cain. He departed this earthly life on Sunday, August 14, 2022. He was raised by his beloved grandmother, Eliza M. Jones & Aunt Alvina Lowery, who both preceded him in death. Joe graduated from Parkland High School with a perfect 4.0 GPA.

Joe was a renowned chef that traveled all over the country serving his delectable cuisines, often introducing himself as the "Culinary Gladiator Flavourous Maximus." No matter how far he traveled, his favorite meals were the ones he cooked for his family and friends. The talk of many family cookouts was his mouthwatering “Uncle Joe’s Gourmet Burgers.” His passion for cooking led him to a career in the food industry where he held many managerial roles. The high demand for his expertise prompted him to open his catering business, Infinity Catering and Events. With his encyclopedic knowledge of herbs and spices, Joe went on to create his spice line, Flavor Maxx Spices, which he sold alongside his hearty scratch-made soups.

Joe was a well-rounded man with an infectious smile who never met a stranger. He was a proud, relentless, die-hard Pittsburgh Steelers fan. Over the years, Joe served faithfully as a deacon and held many other ministerial roles. He was also a faithful charter member of Infusion Worship Ministry.

Joe was proud of his culinary skills and accomplishments, but nothing compared to his love and adoration for his daughter, Elize S. Abraham and grandson, Z'kharious Abraham. In addition to his daughter, grandson, and mother, Joe's memories will be cherished by his siblings George Massey, III (Shanya), Alicia Clinton (Pastor Michael Clinton, Sr.), Tamika Gentry (Anthony), Nicole Tisdale (Gavin), Gerard Massey, & Pamela Massey. He will also be missed by his extended family including James Lowery, Stephanie (Eddie) Perry, Denise Barr & family, Gloria Fulton & family, and a host of nieces, nephews & beloved friends

If this is Joe Abraham that went to Shekinah Glory Praise Center in the 1990's I remember him! We served on the choir during our membership there! Byron and Cheryl Ingram we're the pastor and copastor! He was a nice deacon there too! May he rest in peace! Lovingly submitted to the family, Ev. Berlinda Baker - Benjamin
