

Joya Hardy

August 16, 2023

Sister Joya “Sput” Hardy was born on October 4, 1957, to Evangelist Mary Alexander and Willie Lowery in Winston-Salem, North Carolina. She graduated from Reynolds High School and Goodwill Industries.

Ms. Hardy was a former employee in the medical field as a CNA at the Oaks, Arbor Acres, and Mount Eagle HealthCare, where she cared for and deeply loved the patients. She actively served as the head of the Welcome Committee at New Direction Movement Cathedral. Besides supporting her family, friends, and community, she enjoyed gardening.

Joya Hardy passed away Tuesday, August 15, 2023, at Forsyth Memorial Hospital after a brief period of illness. In addition to her father, Willie Lowery, and stepfather, Timothy Alexander, Sr., she was preceded in death by her sister, Belinda Lowery, brother, Darrell Howell, and daughter, Charity Hardy.

Joya “Sput” Hardy is survived by her mother, Mary Alexander; children, Terrance “Rayvon” Hardy and James “Punkin” (Tashika) Hardy; sisters, Pamela Lindsay and Tamara Alexander; brothers, Timothy Alexander, Jr. Kenneth Wilkes, Timothy Sheff, and Philemon Wilkes; grandchild, Talaya McCullough; she is also survived by her aunts, nieces, nephews, and other loving relatives and friends.
