

Maria Quidachay Dahilig

May 29, 1952 - May 11, 2024

Maria, a proud native of Guam, was born the youngest of ten on May 29, 1952, in the charming village of Hagat, Guam, to her loving parents, Jesus and Antonia Quidachay.

Maria spent most of her adult life in Junction City, Kansas, where she opened her home to many other natives of Guam. She will always be remembered for her warm hospitality, sense of humor and especially for her authentic Chamorro cooking. Maria and her husband moved to Winston-Salem, North Carolina in 2018 where she lived a fulfilling life until she was called home by our Heavenly Father at the age of 71.

She is preceded in death by her parents, her sisters Ana De Leon Guerrero, Agueda Quidachay Sazon, and brothers Vicente, Jesus, Ignacio, Antonio, Joaquin and Jose Quidachay.

Memories of Maria will be cherished by her loving husband of nearly 55 years, Anthony San Miguel Dahilig, her brother, Juan Quidachay (Irene) of Hagat, Guam and an abundance of family and friends.

Her legacy lives on through her children: Annette Dahilig, Bennette Roberson (Patrick), Craig Dahilig (Angelina), and Darlene Starnes (Shaun).

Fourteen Grandchildren: Anthony Roberson (Momica), JacQueline Vinson (Jason), Aaron Vinson, Patrick Roberson, Jr (Liliana), Tavarus Starnes, Shawn Roberson (Kayla), Timothy Roberson (Amber), Sabrina Roberson (Corey), D'Andre' Starnes (Maliquea), Andrew Dahilig (Victoria), Tori Calloway (Joshua), Tavonte' Starnes, Desirae' Crandell (William), and Joshua Dahilig.

Twenty-five Great grandchildren: Jaidyn, Kelcey, Aleiah, Isa, Destini, Aniyah, Isabella, Jordyn, A'Yauna, Aaron Jr., Jae'Lyn, Jade, August, Calix, Noah, Aaliyah, Timothy Jr., Milani, Camryn, Chloe, Cyler, Joshua Jr., Arianna, Isaiah, Eden, and two on the way.

“ Because I was blessed to see my sister-in-law recently in March I can share this memory.

One night, while visiting my sister Maria and brother Anthony and their families, we played a game around the dining room table. I'm not sure how it started, but my brother Anthony and sister Maria had a debate about who could speak our language better. As the game started, we decided that whoever had the most correct answers would win. Maria was the first to go, and before she could answer, my brother Anthony jumped in and was correct. This happened again with another word or statement, and my brother didn't wait his turn both times.

So I am coming to the end of what happened next and I can't help but laugh and cry at the same time :(

I said, OK, Maria if you get this right you are the winner. Before I could get the entire sentence out How do you say "HELLO" in Chamorro, Maria yelled out "HELLO!"

It was so funny she had us laughing so hard. I don't have many memories of my sister Maria, but during the short visit I had with her, I saw how strong, loving, and funny she was, and how much she loved her family. And how much they loved her.

She will be dearly missed. Rest in peace, sister. I love you now and forever.
