“ Hi my name is Kayla and I am a local bible teacher. I am so sorry for the loss of your loved one. There is a very comforting scripture at Isaiah 25:8. It says that soon Jehovah will swallow up death forever and that he will wipe away all of the tears. So we can all look forward to a time when death will be no more. I hope that this scripture can bring some true comfort during these difficult times.

“ We are blessed to have angels on earth in our lives. My very special angel Mimi came into my life as our housekeeper when I was one and she was 19. She always loved me unconditionally. I remember coming home from school and running into her arms. She would just hold me and hug me. Mimi loved to tell everyone that I was her first baby and shared such funny stories of our times together. I still use Jergens hand lotion because of Mimi. I treasured our visits every time I was in North Carolina and hold our memories so close to my heart. I am a better person for having been loved by Mimi Scott.

My Mimi is now in heaven, reunited with her sweet husband Rob and is seeing Mother. Sweet reunions for them all!

*Mimi, I will always love you!
