“ Wow! 27 years of friendship! College, gospel choir, and church! Who would have ever thought that this would have come so soon. Sure gonna miss you calling asking me when I was going to make the spaghetti with my special sauce lol. Well, all the sickness, pain, and suffering are now over! You beat us there but we shall crown Him together one day!

“ Edddd I will never forget our last conversation 8-17 in church. If anyone had a problem with Ed, it was them that was the problem. All anyone can say “ Ed was a great man” .You shocked EVERYONE with this one 😭😭. We’re hurting down here but I know you’re in heaven singing and smiling. #WeLoveEd ❤️🖤😭💔

“ Mr.Jackson was my chorus teacher. I used to look forward to coming to his class late just to aggravate him lol. Jump in-front of his door with a big smile and say “GOOD MORNING MR.JACKSON” as he slammed the door in my face. Thank you Mr.Jackson for always making me laugh you will forever be missed. ❤️

“ We will miss you Mr Ed. Mr Ed was one of the dedicated teachers at Petree and Lowrance. I could depend on him to assist and take care of my family member. He checked on him during the summer months and after he went to Parkland. He was family to us. We love you Mr Ed. Rest now
