“ Rayshella! Wow my heavy sadden tears fall as I type this from my soul to you - Your free spirit & loving heart from the day I met you, was always so genuine & true!

*Your smile & the way you embrace anyone within your presence, we could feel the warmth that you possess - But now my beautiful cousin in law, it's your time to indulge in the warmth of Gods presence, as you lay your sweet head down to forever rest!
We love you Ray'! Always in our hearts, soul & minds...

“ I love you, Rayshella! We became partners in praise when you joined the Praise Dancers! You started with the big group, even you and I dancing with the younger dancers! Then you broke off and found yourself a spot as a solo dancer, worshipping most often at the No Frills service on Saturday! Your worship is for real! You got up off the pews and found your freedom in dancing for the Lord! Your praise was always such an inspiration to me; so. I know what you are doing now! Beautiful Lady, beautiful spirit, beautiful personality who showed God's kindness and compassion to everyone she met. She was a very creative artist and praise dancer that made all smile. May she dance, rejoice and decorate Heaven in God's Glory 🙏 We'll miss you from this earthly home but praise your forever residence in paradise.
