

Robert Reid

February 17, 1925 - February 23, 2023

No obituary found for this tribute.

Tribute Wall

“ I always spoke of Uncle Robert to my children and friends because he was so unique in manner and speech, especially his super southern accent. Which made everything that he said so interesting and at times side splitting comical.

A few years back he came to visit me during which my childhood friend (Dori), finally got to meet him. During his stay he took us out to dinner. Needless to say that he kept us in stitches! That was the last time that I saw him in person...what a blessing it was!

I posted a few photos that my mom his sister-in-law (Susan Cole) passed down to me. They were all taken at Fort ORD in California. I'm guessing late 1940s.

Uncle's wedding to my Auntie Thelma Cole, and with my two older brothers (Leslie and Julius La Palmer).

Love You Forever Uncle Robert!

Your Niece,

Sheila Cole-Ramos

Jordan Remi - March 04, 2023 at 11:07 AM

“ I have so many fond memories of Uncle Robert, especially his super southern accent. Which made everything that he said so interesting. Often times making it side splitting comical.

I always spoke of him to my children and my friends. A few years back he came to visit me. He took me and my childhood friend out to dinner. He kept us in stitches. I'm so glad that my friend finally got to meet him. We miss him dearly!

Attached are a few photos that my mom (Susan Cole his sister-in-law), had passed down to me. Uncle's wedding with my Auntie Thelma, him and Auntie, him with my two older brothers (Leslie & Julius La Palmer). All were taken at Fort Ord in California. I'm guessing late 1940s.

Love you forever Uncle Robert!

Your Niece,

Sheila Cole-Ramos

Jordan Remi - March 04, 2023 at 10:44 AM

CR

“ 2 files added to the tribute wall

Calvin Reid - March 02, 2023 at 05:53 PM

SF

“ 1 file added to the tribute wall

Sheila Frazier - March 02, 2023 at 09:19 AM