“ Hi my name is Kayla and I am a local bible teacher. I am so sorry for the loss of your loved one. There is a very comforting scripture at Isaiah 25:8. It says that soon Jehovah will swallow up death forever and that he will wipe away all of the tears. So we can all look forward to a time when death will be no more. I hope that this scripture can bring some true comfort during these difficult times.

“ Dear Family Members,

I am sincerely sorry to hear of the loss of a dearly beloved and cherished friend, Bishop Robert L. Wise, Sr. The Bible says in Luke 12:48, “From everyone who has been given much, much will be demanded; and from the one who has been entrusted with much, much more will be asked.” It is what we do with what we are given that ensures our service is not in vain.

Bishop Wise was as compassionate about the Lord as he was his family and he left an indelible mark in the lives of so many individuals in Winston-Salem and the greater Triad area.

While he will be sorely missed, the greatest honor we can bestow upon him is to continue his legacy in lifting the name of Jesus and continuing to walk the pathway he so masterfully paved.

I pray your fond memories of him will bring you peace in the days ahead. May the Lord bless and comfort you during this difficult time.

Sincerely,

*Dr. Vivian H. Burke

“ I would like to send my condolences to entire Wise Family. Just know that I love you and will continue to pray for you. Dr. Wise was a true man of God. I have known him all my life and he has taught me and so many others about Jesus. The main thing he has taught me is to confess that Jesus Lives in Me. Although I will miss him I know that his spirit still remains and the more I confess Jesus I will be in connection with his spirit.

“ *Bishop Dr. Wise was truly a man of God I always looked up to. I enjoyed hearing his great words of wisdom. I take his words at heart. I always felt that special connection as we shared the same birthday. He will truly be missed, but God saw that he was tired. He has accomplished his mission and done well. It is a joy to know he has gone for his just reward. My sincere condolence and prayers goes out for the family.
