

Rollin Ernest Roberts

August 6, 2018

Rollin Ernest Roberts passed on to his heavenly resting home on Monday, August 6, 2018 at Thomasville Medical Facility in Thomasville, NC.

Rollin Roberts was a graduate of North Carolina Agriculture & Technical State University, where he earned a Bachelor of Science in History. He was also a graduate of Guilford Technical Community College, where he earned his Associates in Airplane Mechanics and Transportation.

He served faithfully for nine years as a caregiver to his loving mother Evelyn. Rollin loved his family and friends dearly. He enjoyed travelling, attending sporting events, airplanes, discussing History and our current political state of affairs. He also thrived at playing the Piano and Organ.

He was preceded in death by his father Franklin D. Roberts.

He leaves to cherish his memories his mother Evelyn T. Roberts, a sister Sondra D. Roberts, brothers Juan Small (Patti) and Robert Small. Rollin also leaves a special nephew T. Lamar Cassell, a special Uncle Dwight Talbert (Linda) and his close cousins Dwight Talbert, Jr., Bryant Talbert, Adrian Bass (Joyce) and a host of other aunts, uncles and cousins as well as many appreciated friends.
