Mother Ruth Juanita Foddrell

“The Lord is so Good”

Mother Ruth Juanita Foddrell, 86, of Winston Salem, North Carolina went home to be with the Lord on July 29, 2020. She was one of three daughters born on January 15, 1934 in Welch, West Virginia to the late Jessie and Sallie Brown; and as a young child, she was filled with the precious gift of the Holy Ghost at the tender age of 13. Mother Foddrell attended Gary High School before deciding to find a job to help the family financially. She worked at the local hospital where she met the late James Boyd. It was through Mother Foddrell's unique gift of witnessing and persistence that James Boyd decided to give his life to Christ and the two were united together in holy matrimony in 1953 wherein two children were born James Boyd and the late Jessie Boyd. After the untimely death of her first husband, Mother Foddrell met a young man by the name of the late Ueal Leonard Foddrell (Singing Bird) who sang in the church choir. These two wonderful and godly people fell in love and married in 1957. From this marriage, nine children were born and raised in a home with strong Christian values. Mother Foddrell was a prayer warrior; a very faithful servant of the Lord; she loved going to church and praising God. Some of her greatest attributes expressed were love, kindness, meekness, longsuffering, giving (her last), and patience. She enjoyed family gatherings, and loved her children unconditionally. We will never forget her favorite chair at the kitchen table nor her contagious smile that would brighten any day. She touched so many lives with her sweet smile and humble spirit. She will truly and forever be missed on earth but now she is with Jesus and one day will be on New Jerusalem's Turf.

Mother Foddrell was preceded in death by her parents, husband, two sisters, and one son.

She leaves to cherish her fond memories- six sons- James Boyd of Winston Salem, NC, Elder Thaddeus (Tracy) Foddrell of Greensboro, NC, Keith Foddrell of NY, NY, Elder Kenneth (Rosa) Foddrell of Suffolk, VA, Bryant (Lynn) Foddrell of Florence, SC, and Wendell Shawn Foddrell of Winston Salem, NC; four daughters- Priscilla (Rachard) Lucas of NY, NY, Diane Rippon of Clinton, MA, Demetria Stiger of Winston Salem, NC, and Valerie (Deacon Jonathan) Batchelor of Forest City, NC; 18 grandchildren; 25 great grandchildren; and a host of other relatives, church family and friends
