Aunt Ruth was a a true woman of God. Her big gave love to all. She participated in he her church gave God the highest praise. She would set the church on fire when she sings. You would make the best dessert at church dinners. I will see you and my father again. Because, I too will have to change my address to Heavenly lane. Thank you for our conversation on Sunday and that most warm loving hug. You will be missed.

“ Condolences to the family, friends, and our church family. I was with her Sunday and she was doing what she loved to do. Her last directive to me was I need you down here on March 23 while I am upstairs having Spiritual Wings Choir Anniversary. Those hot dogs of hers were always great. I was just eating her signature Key lime cake. She loved to cook and loved being around people. She was a sweet spirited person and very active in church. Ma Ruth will truly be missed! What a precious Jewel God has called home. Prayers of comfort for all with all love.
