

Scotty Lee Haynie

March 14, 1960 - January 29, 2021

Scotty Lee Haynie transitioned from this earth to life everlasting on Friday, January 29, 2021 at the Novant Health Forsyth Medical Center, Winston Salem, N.C. after a valiant battle with a period of illness. Scotty was born March 14, 1960 to Lena Margaret Hunter Haynie and Major P. Haynie in Oconee County, S.C.

Scotty moved with his Mother and Brother James to Winston Salem, N.C. at an early age. He was a proud graduate of Diggs School. He took great pride in participating in the programs at Forsyth Industrial Systems where he learned skilled trades & gained an extended family.

Scotty was a very loveable, friendly and happy person who loved everyone and in return he felt everyone loved him! He made sure when in his presence everyone knew who his brother, nieces, nephew and Sister in Law were as he proudly introduced them to everyone! He had a fierce love for all things musical (especially his bass guitar), comics, cartoons and especially the original Scooby Doo cartoons! Although Scotty had Down's Syndrome, he never let it get him down!

Scotty previously attended Galilee Missionary Baptist Church along with his Mother and the Macedonia Worship Center, Winston-Salem, N.C.

Scotty is preceded in death by his loving Mother, his Father, A Sister Mary H. Goodyear, Maternal Aunts: Pearl Reid, Virginia Staten, Louise Hunter, & Evie Jean Ellis. Paternal Aunts: Renner Haynie Morris, Pearline Agnew, Mary Jane Glenn & Essie Jones. Paternal Uncles: Roscoe Wright & John Haynie.

Scotty is survived by his loving and devoted caregiver and brother James Edward (Madame Mary L.) Haynie, Winston-Salem, N.C. Sister Ailene (David) Reynolds, Brother Perry Haynie; Winston Salem, N.C.; An Aunt Dorothy (Donald) Pollard; Wesson, Mississippi. His loving nieces Varia A. (Val) Haynie; Winston Salem, N.C. & Angela L. Haynie; Durham, N.C. and a loving nephew Jerry M. Haynie; Winston Salem, N.C., Brother in Laws, Raymond Goodyear and Martin Dean; Winston-Salem, N.C.; A long time care giver, Ms. Tonya Carter of Cardinal Innovations Healthcare. A special great nephew who assisted in his care Dameain O. (Angela) Gathings; Winston Salem, N.C.; Niece, Patricia S. Haynie; Winston-Salem, N.C.; Special Nephew Rev. Alexander (Leona) Shuford III; Charlotte, N.C., the Macedonia Worship Center Family, the Gallilee Missionary Baptist Church Family and a host of other relatives and friends.
