“ Sharon and I met at Union Baptist Church as girls. A BEAUTIFUL spirit. We met again at New Jerusalem where she sung on the choir. She loved the Lord, her family and friends. I will definitely miss her. Peaceful Journey back home to the arms of the Ancestors 💔

“Sis. Sharon was so much fun. Her sweet disposition and her laughter is something I will always cherish and remember. My husband and I got to know Sharon through her sons, Anthony and our daughter went to school with her son at Glenn High School. Harold was one of the boy scout leaders at New Jerusalem at that time. Sharon made sure Anthony was always there and ready to learn. There was one time that Anthony was the only little boy that showed up and Harold taught him one on one. which he and Sharon would always remember. As time went on I got to know Sharon through church and the food pantry where she would come in and make us all smile. She and I would talk at church dinners during special programs at New Jerusalem and I got to know and appreciated her good heart. We talked about her love for clothes and how she missed her husband who passed earlier. As our kids got older, Sharon would always ask about our daughter, by saying, "how's my baby girl?" We in turn always kept up with Anthony and the boys through her, and she and we were so proud of her boys.

She will be missed by many and by all who had the pleasure of being around her. I know I will. But God does not make mistakes and I know she is up there watching over her beloved sons whom she really cherished.

Another Angel has gone home to Heaven.

*Our Sincere Sympathy,
Harold, Theresa & Jasmine Spencer*
