“ I worked with Tony for many years. He was a wonderful supervisor, friend and person. He would come in the lab and show me a scratch off ticket that was a huge winner and I would tell him he was the luckiest man I ever knew. He would laugh but he would always say, "if you give God His, he'll bless you". We talked on the phone often, but I had not heard from him in a good while. I am sorry that he had to leave this earth so soon, but I am confident that he is with Jesus and his loved ones that have gone before him. Prayers for his family and friends that God will give comfort in this loss.
