

Mr. Tyrone Smith

October 21, 1957 - June 15, 2016

Tyrone Smith, 58, went to be with the lord on June 15, 2016 at Wake Forest Baptist Medical Center of Winston-Salem, North Carolina.

Tyrone Smith was born on October 21, 1957 in New York City, Mother Ida Mae Smith. He graduated high school from Hawthorn Cedar Knolls in New York City. In 1990 he moved to Winston-Salem, NC and worked several jobs from Office Janitorial, Hotel Housekeeping, Fast-food, and Dixie Classic Fair. Tyrone was out of work as of June 15, 2016 due to disability.

He was a great family man and a loving father. He had to leave behind four children and two grandchildren to mourn. Chaquita Harden Pleasant 24 of Winston-Salem, NC, Demetrius Harden 27 of Winston-Salem, NC (Brenda Harden), Tyrell Smith 18 of Winston-Salem, NC and Tyrone Smith 40 of New York City, Brielle Pleasant 2 years old and DeMari Harden 5 years old. He also leaves family in New York City and close friends to mourn.

He was a socially active man who was deeply involved in helping others before helping himself for majority of his life. If you knew Ty you would know that he was the jack of all trades. He also enjoyed coffee, spaghetti, and anything sweet. His family and friends will always remember him as a hardworking, and outgoing person.

A memorial service is scheduled for June 25, 2016 at 4:00pm, at 3799 Thomasville Road Winston-Salem NC 27107. Pastor Melvin Bell will officiate. All are welcome to attend and celebrate Tyrone's life. The family would like to thank everyone who helped with donations

RIP Th, in my opinion, gone to soon. However, God makes no mistakes. I thank God for Ty being a part of our family, because without him There would be no Demetrice and Chaquita as we know them. I pray your strength in the Lord, God did not promise, no problems. He promised to see us through them. Love you guys and I am confident that the passing of time will make it more bearable. Love Aunt Flo.
