

Mr. Wilbur Alexander Jackson Acker

June 2, 1945 - December 10, 2015

Wilbur Alexander Jackson Acker, 70, was called home to be with the Lord on Thursday, December 10, 2015 at Wake Forest Baptist Hospital. He was born in Forsyth County to the late Mary Agnes Jackson Fisher on June 2, 1945.

At an early age, he relocated to the Queens, New York area and resided with his adopted mother, Janie Acker and was educated in the New York school system. He was a chef, by profession and worked for several hotels, TWA and Sky Chef, a catering company for the airlines.

Upon retiring, he returned to Winston-Salem several years ago and became a member of then, Holy Trinity Baptist Church under the leadership of Rev. Richard C. Miller, Sr.

Wilbur was preceded in death by his mother's, brother, Alvin Charles Fisher, Jr. (Blue) and sister, Tora Marietta Fisher. Cherishing many loving memories are his daughters, Kimberly and Kelley LeFebvre of California; Sisters, Barbara Farris of Bronx, NY, Shelia Sullivan, Enid Fisher and Willa Clement and brother, Ricky Davis of the city. Two grandchildren; Mason and Parker Gamboa of California and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

“ Hi my name is Kayla and I am a local bible teacher. I am so sorry for the loss of your loved one. There is a very comforting scripture at Isaiah 25:8. It says that soon Jehovah will swallow up death forever and that he will wipe away all of the tears. So we can all look forward to a time when death will be no more. I hope that this scripture can bring some true comfort during these difficult times.
